

Michael Kerlake

Over 28 years' experience in the areas of banking, finance and funds management having held various senior roles within Westpac Banking Corporation. His direct experience covers both the resources and infrastructure sectors being globally responsible for these activities for over 8 years in Westpac.

Since leaving Westpac in early 2007 Michael has been consulting for both private sector and government clients in the infrastructure space.

KEY SKILLS

Board experience
 Governance
 Innovator
 People leader
 Corporate finance experience
 Infrastructure and resources expert

CORPORATE

2014 - Present

AMS INTERNATIONAL TECHNOLOGIES

+ Inaugural Chairman with semi-executive role

2013 - 2014

188 CAPITAL PTY LTD

+ Joint Managing Director

1985 - 2006

WESTPAC

+ Head of Infrastructure, Specialised Capital Group, Sydney
 + Head of Resources and Infrastructure, Corporate Finance, Sydney
 + Head of Project Advisory and Finance, Corporate Finance, Sydney
 + Head of Infrastructure Finance, Project Finance, Sydney

1980 - 1984

STATE ELECTRICITY COMMISSION OF VICTORIA

+ Business Planner – Corporate Planning Directorate
 + Engineer – Distribution Engineering Department

CONSULTING

2007 - Present

Provision of strategic and financial advice and financial arranging services to a range of government and corporate clients. Clients include: Westpac Banking Corporation, NSW Treasury, NSW Office of State Revenue, NSW Department of Transport, Roads and Maritime Services NSW, Sydney Metro Authority, Sydney Olympic Park Authority, Barwon Capital Partners, Griffin Group, Powercor and AJ Lucas.

Major projects worked on during this period included pursuit of a new funds management business based around several contracted power stations, assessment and preparation of expressions of interest for several PPP projects and infrastructure assets, the proposed Sydney Metro rail project that was subsequently scrapped by NSW Government, the proposed North West Rail Link for NSW Government and matters with respect to the Olympic Stadium for Sydney Olympic Park Authority and two independent expert roles that involve advanced infrastructure investment knowledge

EDUCATION

MBA – Australian Graduate School of Management NSW
 Bachelor of Engineering, Electrical, University of Tasmania
 Financial Services Reform – ASIC Tier 1 Authorised Representative accredited
 Securities Institute PS 146 Modules 991/992/993 completed 2002

ASSOCIATIONS

Westpac representative and former Board Member on the Australian Council for Infrastructure Development (AusCID) now known as Infrastructure Partnerships Australia

Member of Taskforce and lecturer for Masters Course in Project Finance (M41) Financial Services Institute of Australia now Kaplan

Presentations at a variety of industry forums and conferences since 1992